All which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Lisbon, June 12. A Squadron of Men of War is fitting out here with all Diligence, conſiſting of one Ship of 80 Guns, four of 60 each, and two of 30, with two Tenders; and it is ſaid it will be ready to ſail about the End of this Month for Civita-Vecchia, and will thence proceed to join the Venetian Fleet. The Conde de Rio Grande, is to be Admiral of this Squadron, and the young Conde de St. Vincente Vice-Admiral. In Conſideration of this Aſſiſtance, the Pope is to grant to the King of Portugal the Tenths of the Revenues of the Clergy in his Majeſty's Dominions. The Crown, a Britiſh Man of War, Captain Tudor Trevor Commander, came into this Port from Cadiz the 6th Inſtant.

Venice, June 12. Letters from Rome of the 9th Inſtant ſay, an Expreſs from Civita-Vecchia had brought Advice, that the Pope's Ships and Gallies were ſailed for the Levant to join the Venetian Fleet, after having received the Benediction in the Pope's Name from Cardinal Patrizio. Several Ships were arrived at Civita-Vecchia laden with Corn, of which the People of the Eccleſiaſtical State are in very great want. 'Tis adviſed from Zant, that Sig. Andrea Piſani was making ready to ſail with the Fleet. On the 8th a good Number of Tranſports, having on board 1500 Men, with all ſorts of Ammunition and a conſiderable Sum of Money, ſailed from hence for Corfu, under the Convoy of two Men of War. The Earl of Peterborough continues here.

Ratisbon, June 18. On the 12th Inſtant Count Kaunitz paſſed through this Place in his Way to the ſeveral Courts of the Empire, where he is to ſollicit Succours againſt the Turks. Letters from Peterwardin of the 30th paſt ſay, they had Advice from Belgrade, that a Body of Janiſaries, which ſome reckoned at twelve, and others at twenty Thouſand Men, was expected there very ſoon, being already arrived at Niſſa, where the Begglerbeg of Romelia, and the Baſſa of Sophia Zari Achmet had the Command and chief Direction of the new Fortifications. The Sultan was ſaid to be at Adrianople, and deſigned to paſs the Summer at Sophia, while the Grand Vizier commanded the Army in chief. The Aga of the Janiſaries was to advance before with thirty ſeven Regiments, of about two thouſand Men each, and to be in the Neighbourhood of Belgrade in a Fortnight's Time; the Fortifications and Palliſades there were repairing with all poſſible Diligence; a hundred ſmall Saicks were building, and a hundred Pontoons which were new made, had been ſunk in the Water, to keep them from being ſpoiled by the Heats; the Land Carriages for them were ready. The Turks once intended to have ſent their Boats with Ammunition and Proviſion up the Save by Force under a ſtrong Convoy, but changed their Reſolution, not to give the Imperialiſts the laſt Occaſion for a Rupture, which they will rather expect with Patience. The Boats will now be all unloaden at Schatra, as thoſe at Belgrade are already, and the Stores ſent from thence to Boſnia by Land, at a great Expence and Trouble, for which Service two thouſand Waggons are ordered. No Saicks are yet come thither, but 'tis ſaid near a hundred were ready at Demir Copia, under the Command of a particular Baſſa, and would be ſent up the River from Time to Time. The new Saraskier there is a very ſevere Officer, and went often about diſguis'd to hear what the People ſaid, puniſhing them on the leaſt Occaſion, and 'twas ſtrictly forbid on Pain of Death to talk of a War with the Germans. It had not yet been poſſible to learn with any Certainty what Number of Forces would be ſent this Year into Dalmatia, or what were deſigned to Rendezvous about Belgrade. P. S. Letters of the 13th Inſtant from Vienna ſay, the Turks had demanded a Convoy from the Governor of Peterwaradin for the Proviſions which they deſigned to ſend up the Save; and, on his Refuſal, gave him to underſtand they would find Means to help themſelves. This was looked upon at Vienna to be little other than a Declaration of War, and was likely to haſten Prince Eugene's Journey.

Bruſſels, June 27. On Thurſday the 25th Inſtant, the General of the Regular Monks of the Order of Prémontre, arrived here from Ghent. He was met at the Gate of Flanders by M. Bollaert, Secretary to the Council of State, who conducted him in one of Count Kinigſegg's Coaches with 6 Horſes, attended by ſeveral others, and accompanied by ſeveral Abbots of the ſaid Order to the Palace, where he had a publick Audience of Count Kinigſegg, the Imperial Miniſter, with great Ceremony; in which, after having ſignified, that in his Viſitation of the Convents of his Order, he would exhort them, to pay chearfully, according to the Pope Grant to the Emperor, the Tenths of their Revenues, towards carrying on the War againſt the Turks; he ſaid he hoped, in caſe of any Difficulty, his Excellency, on whoſe Military and Political Virtues he took Occaſion to inlarge, would ſecond him with his Authority, and honour the Order with his Protection. To which Count Kinigſegg made a ſhort, but ſatisfactory Anſwer. After the Audience, he was re-conducted by the ſaid Secretary to the Abbey of Dilligem, where he and his Retinue were ſplendidly entertained at Dinner. Yeſterday the General Aſſembly of the States of Brabant met in the Apartments of the Town-Houſe, to chuſe a Deputy in the place of Count la Moterie, whoſe three Years expired that Day. There were ſo many Pretenders, that they judged it proper to defer the Election to the 24th of the next Month. The Council of Finances, and Chamber of Accounts, are examining their Regiſters, in order to make out an exact Liſt of thoſe who have had Titles of Honour, Penſions, or Employments, conferred on them by the Elector of Bavaria, or King Philip: But Count Kinigſegg has acquainted them, that they need not deliver in that Liſt, before the Government of the Auſtrian Netherlands is ſettled; and in the mean Time the Enjoyment of thoſe Titles of Honour, Penſions, and Employments, is continued to the Perſons who are now in Poſſeſſion of them, without any

any Stop being put to the Payment of either Penſion or Sallary, as was reported. 'Tis ſaid the Marquis de Prie is expected at the Hague about the 12th of the next Month, and that Monſieur Hop, the Treaſurer-General of Holland, is appointed to treat with him, on the Affairs relating to theſe Provinces.

St. James's, June 22. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint Richard Edgecombe, Eſq; to be one of the Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Treaſurer of the Exchequer.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to confer the Honour of Knighthood on John Colbatch Doctor of Phyſick.

Whereas a Letter dated June 23, and ſigned A. Z. was ſent by the Penny-Poſt to one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State: The Perſon who wrote the ſaid Letter is deſired to come to the Office to which it was directed, and he ſhall have all fitting Encouragement.

Whereas the Right Honourable the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury did, on the 21ſt of this Inſtant June, receive by the Penny Poſt an Anonymous Letter ſigned O. N. pretending to diſcover a conſiderable Sum of Money which is unlawfully kept and detained from the Crown, with ſeveral other Things, by which His Majeſty looſes ſome of His Revenue: If the Perſon who wrote the ſaid Letter will come to the Treaſury and make out the ſaid Diſcoveries, he ſhall receive all fitting Encouragement for the ſame.

The Commiſſioners for Victualling His Majeſty's Navy, at the deſire of the Perſon who ſent them a Letter by the Penny-Poſt unſigned, dated the 20th Inſtant, do hereby give Notice, that the ſaid Letter came ſafe to Hand.
